

PEACE GATHERING

FLY KITES
NOT DRONES

22nd March

1pm - 4pm

The Meadows

(Next to The Pavillion Cafe)

EVERYONE WELCOME FOR:

- ★ Kite Crafting
- ★ Music Making
- ★ Juggling
- ★ Face Painting
- ★ Story Telling
- ★ Pyro Celtica

MAY WE GATHER
IN UNITY

In solidarity and peace from Scotland to the Afghan people who live with the threat of drones. Afghans traditionally celebrate Now Ruz (New Year) on March 21st and fly kites from the hilltops - a practice banned under the Taliban. Donations to benefit Afghan Schools and Afghan Peace Volunteers Duvet Project.

Organised by Edinburgh Peace and Justice Centre

Supported by Edinburgh CAAT, Edinburgh Stop the War, Edinburgh CND & Scottish WILPF