Peace & Justice

Working in Edinburgh and across Scotland since 1980, we promote:

Nonviolence
Human Rights
Conflict Resolution
Ecological Sustainability
Creating a Culture of Peace

Teaching Peace

Our Cooperative Games and Conflict Resolution programme facilitators are working in Primary Schools to help children improve self-esteem, respect, and communication.

The programme supports Health & Well-being in the Scottish Curriculum for Excellence.

Conscientious Objection

We're partnering with WEA Scotland on the Legacies of Resistance to the First World War adult education project.

We organise Conscientious Objectors' Day vigils annually and lead a consortium to erect a Memorial to Conscientious Objectors in Edinburgh's Princes Street Gardens.

Challenging Militarisation

We organise Fly Kites not Drones Days, the Challenging Militarisation of Youth network, and distribute white poppies remembering all victims of war; we help organise Armed Forces Day demonstrations and the Global Day of Action on Military Spending.

Plus we're working for Divestment from arms and to end arms sales to Saudi Arabia.

Supporting Refugees

We advocate for unaccompanied asylum seeking children and for the UK to welcome its fair share of refugees. We publish policy briefings and organise talks, symposiums, vigils and letter writing.

We work with local groups to collect clothes and donations for refugees.

Advocating Disarmament

As part of the Scrap Trident Coalition, ICAN, and Don't Bank the Bomb, we organize demonstrations and campaign for nuclear disarmament.

Our 140,000 Origami Cranes project, inspired by a girl from Hiroshima who died of leukemia, engages people in their communities to remember all those killed by the Hiroshima atom bomb.

Raising Awareness through the Arts

We organised an exhibition of Syrian childrens' art work and an exhibition focussing on people and communities who oposed the First World War.

With our CO memorial project we will engage an artist to create a sculpture that will be a public space for reflecting on alternatives to war.
